

Friday Newsletter 24th November 2023

FANTASTIC LATE NOTICE OFFER

Late this afternoon, the Dukes Theatre Lancaster rang up to offer us FREE tickets to their production of A Christmas Carol on Monday morning for the whole school! Obviously, this is very late notice, but we do not want to miss such a fantastic opportunity. We will be taking the whole school on this trip as a 'local visit'. Most parents have given permission for us to take children on local visits without a separate permission slip. If you DO NOT want your child to take part in this event, please email the school office (sbm@castleview.school) before 9am on Monday morning to let us know.

Christmas Bingo

If you haven't already got it in your diaries, Christmas Bingo this year will take place on Thursday 30th November at 6pm! We would love to see as many of our families as possible at this fun-filled family event.

We will be serving the hot dogs, drinks and cakes first, so that you can bring your family for their tea before the fun starts. We will be having a variety of callers, and the hampers will be stuffed full of Christmas goodies!

The fun all starts at 6pm and 'eyes down' is at 6.30pm sharp – we look forward to seeing you there on Thursday!

Fantastic Behaviour awards

The children who have impressed their teachers over the last week are:

Miss Liver – Layla

Mrs Cudby & Miss Boardman - McKenzie

Mrs Walker – Charlene

Mr Fournier – Jacob H

Miss Stoves – Aaliyah

Mr Rose – Tyler

Miss Liver's Learners

This week Reception and Year 1 have continued their learning through different play-based activities. This week has included Lancaster Castle being built in the construction area and painting using a range of paints such as block paints, poster paints and water colours. We have also been practising our number recognition and ordering skills with practical resources.

Year 2 Writing Project

These are some of the children in Mrs Walker's class that are taking part in the Writing Project which is about 'No-Bot', the robot with no bottom. The children have been working really hard at home and have absolutely amazed Mrs Walker with the quality and quantity of written work they have produced. Already they have completed 6 parts of the project with only 2 more tasks to go before they find out about their very exciting reward trip – keep up the good work!

Regular Readers

The following children have read at home 7 times (or even more!) last week and we are so proud of them that we want to share their names with you!

Miss Liver – Milly, Scarlett, Layla, Alex

Mrs Walker – Briana, Dante, Jett, Leo, Modather, Pooya

Mrs Stoves – Tyler, Isabella, Ruby T, Ruby S

Mrs Cudby & Miss Boardman – Isabella, Primrose, Thaaranka, Dalton

Mr Fournier – Hollie, Poppy, Amaan, Sarah

Mr Rose – Elsa, Esme, Jacob, Jessica, Mariana, Miah, Raed

Year 4 Safety Experts

The Children in Miss Boardman's and Mrs Cudby's class have been learning about Road Safety week and have made some fabulous posters combining their knowledge of the subject with their use of imperative verbs (words that we use in commands). Good job Year 4!

Year 6 Designers

These two Year 6 boys have been very enthused by their Design Technology challenge this half term which was to design and build a 'Marble Run' that would allow a marble to travel freely through a variety of tubes. As you can see, they have to cut and shape a variety of cardboard tubes and have also used lots of Sellotape to hold the different parts together. Every time I walk into the room their Marble Run has grown bigger with more twists, turns and chutes

– I can't wait to see the finished product!

Superstars Certificates for outstanding work

The following children have all worked their socks off in class and have been awarded a certificate for their great attitude to learning:

Miss Liver – Layla

Mrs Walker – Charlene

Miss Stoves – Aaliyah

Mrs Cudby & Miss Boardman – McKenzie

Mr Fournier – Jacob H

Mr Rose – Tyler

Teamwork in Mr Fournier's class

The Year 5s have started a new English unit all about recounts. Here they are working as a team to look for different features in a newspaper.

Attendance

This week's winners of the best attendance prize are the children in Mrs Stoves' class. Well done everyone!

Best wishes, C. Bright
